THE HACAWA

John Austin, Editor

Lenoir-Rhyne is people — We are people created in His image, but the similarity ends there. We all come from different cultures and environments, and we all have different religions and experiences. Our goals for the future vary as widely as the backgrounds from which we come. And perhaps, we all have different reasons for being at Lenoir-Rhyne. But regardless of all our differences, we, for a brief time, share a common present — we are the people of Lenoir-Rhyne College.

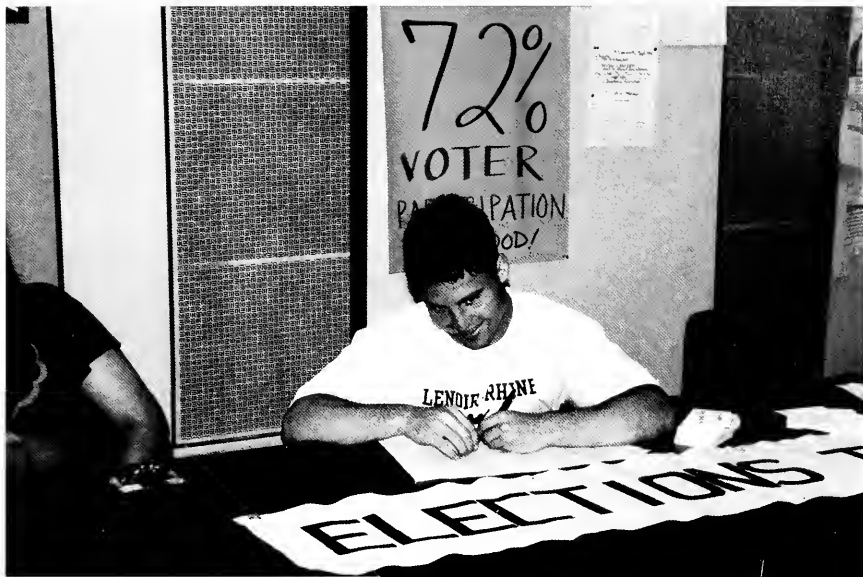

WE WORK —

WE PLAY —

WE TEACH —

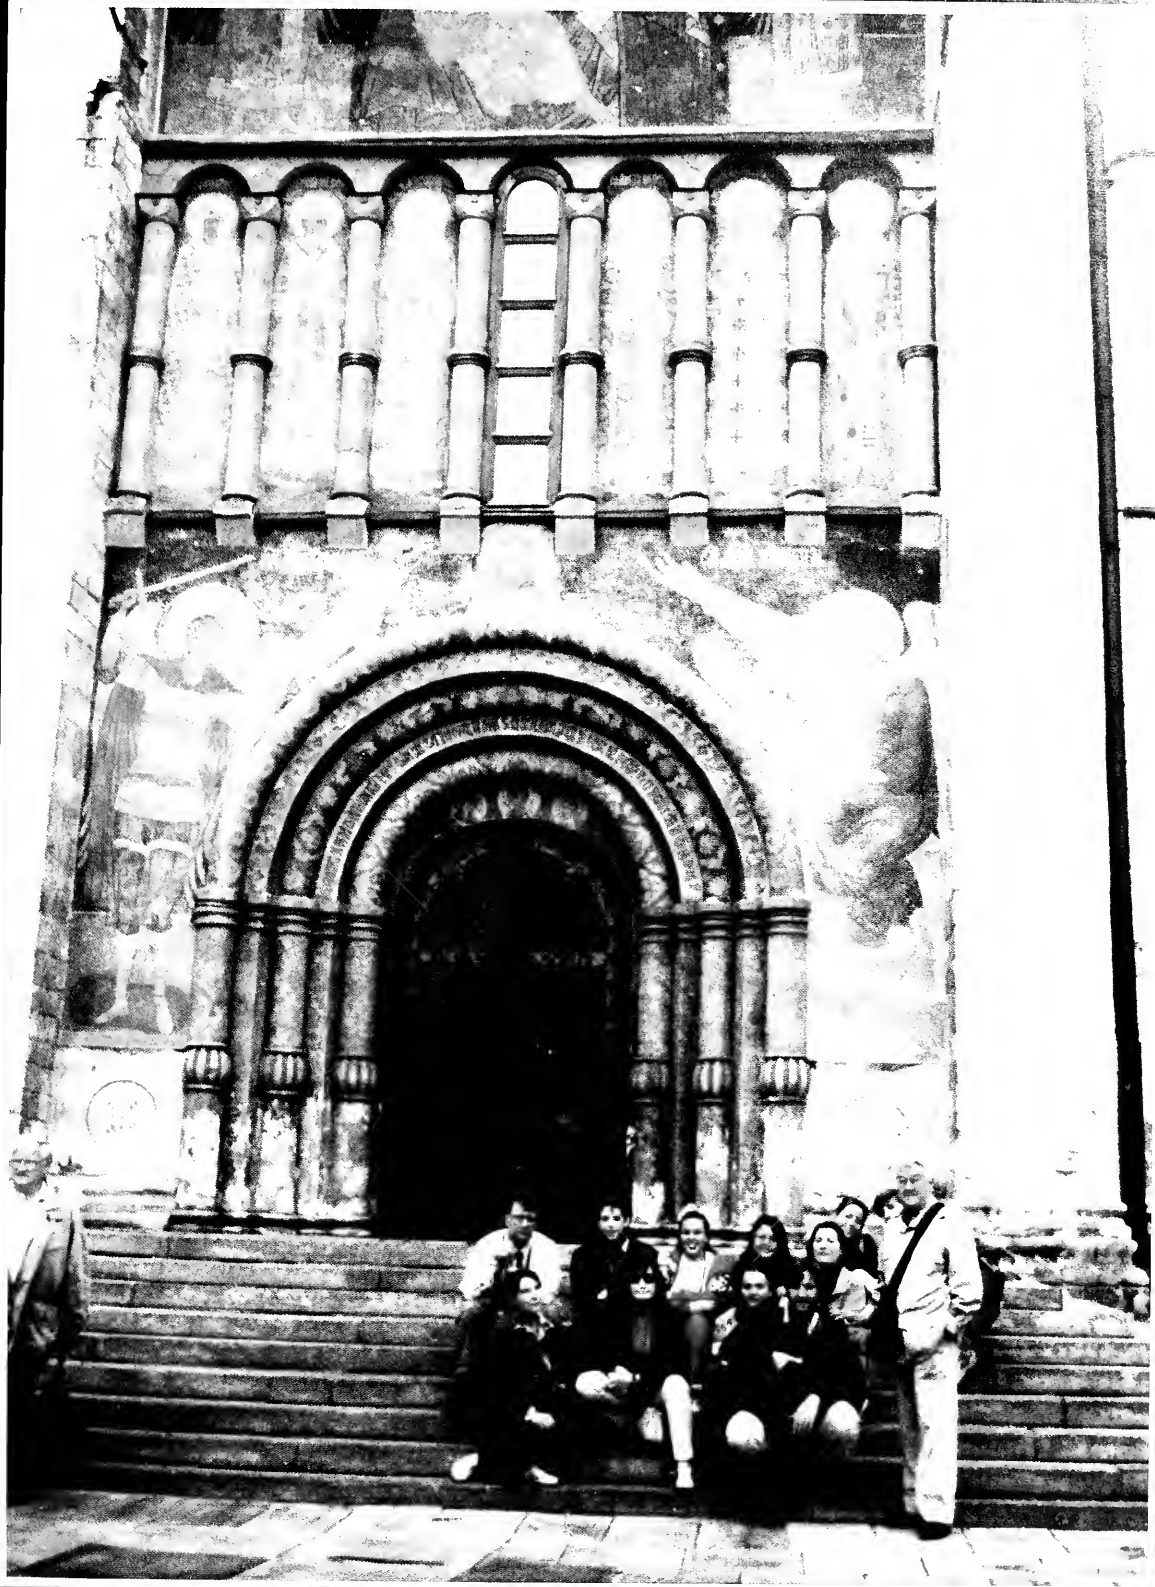

WE LEARN —

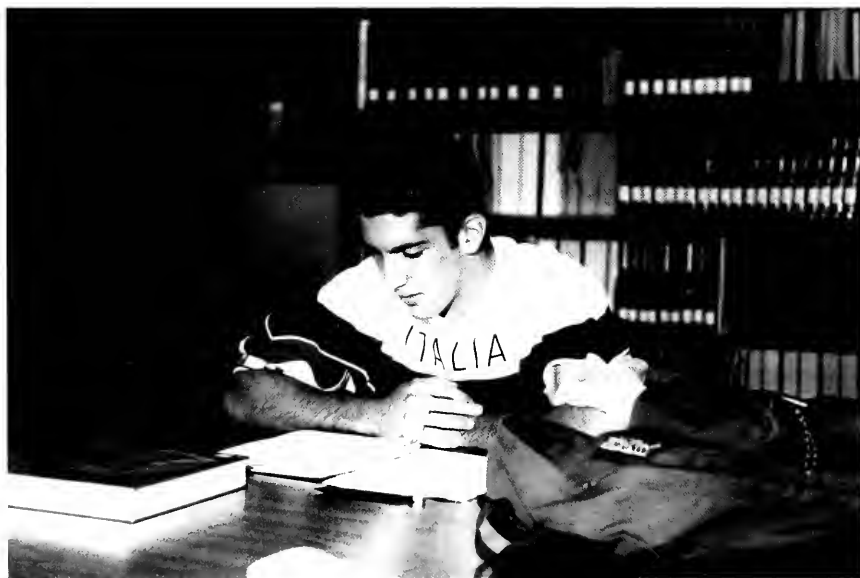

LR PLAYMAKERS VISIT RUSSIA ON THEATRE TOUR.

We learn from labs and library as well as field trips and campus groups.

WE CELEBRATE —

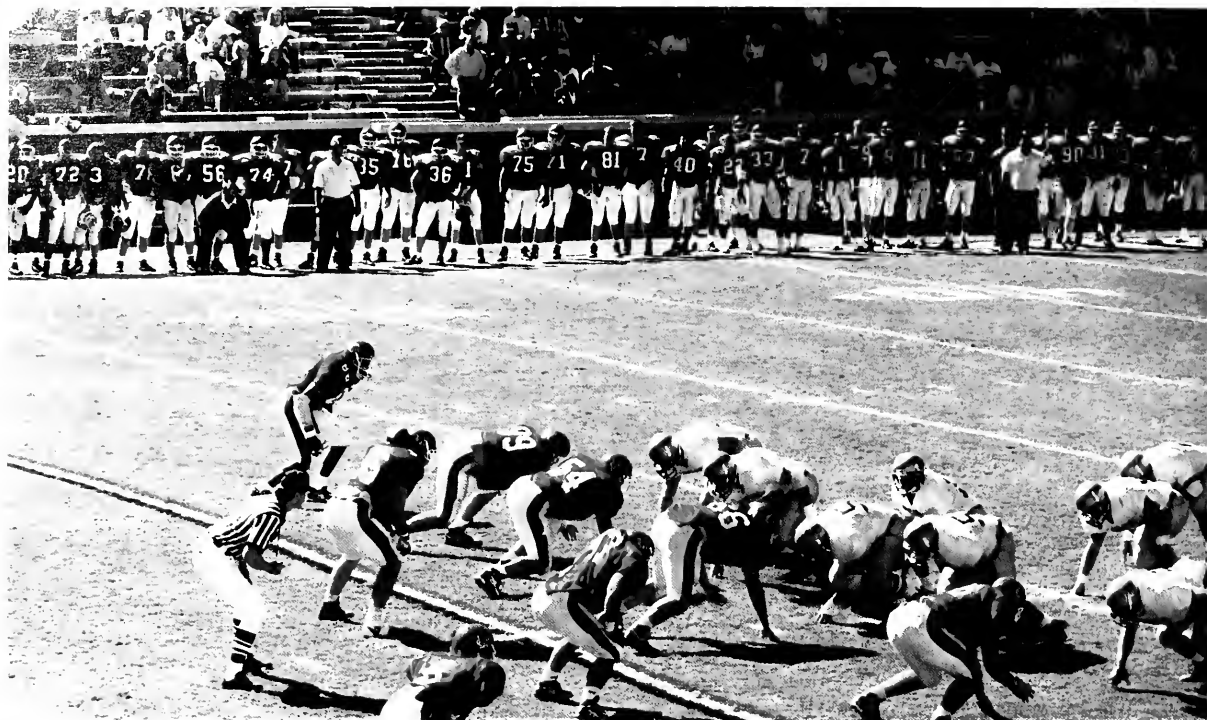

We celebrate with a Homecoming float, an intramural touchdown, and at LR's annual spring fling.

WE ARE PART OF GROUPS —

From sports teams to Prologue groups to intramurals to Playmakers — We function in groups.

WE DO
ALONE —

We achieve through participation in a summer play, graduation, and fund-raising.

RAST, WRIGHT RECEIVE HONORS

Students, faculty and staff were recognized for their accomplishments during the college's annual honors convocation held on May 5, 1993 in Monroe Auditorium.

Dr. Jeffrey Wright (above right), assistant professor of economics, was honored with the Raymond Bost Distinguished Professor Award, and Professor Thelma Rast (above left) received the Roediger Distinguished Service Award. Professor Rast was also honored with the college yearbook dedication.

The Freshman Medal went to Alicia Lane from Lilburn, Georgia.

Among the others recognized at the ceremony were Heather Shields, who received the SGA Award; Eric Childers, who got the SGA Leadership Award; and Vice President Barbara Richards, named to the SGA President's Award.

Deaf Awareness Awards went to Heather Klein and Christine Kincheloe. Jennifer Gustafson got the Journalism Award and John Vagnetti and Jonathan Ernst were also recognized for achievement in writing.

Theta Xi fraternity and Kappa Delta sorority were named the Greek groups of the year.

Intramural awards went to Theta Chi Oxen I and Women's B.T.T.W. Individual awards went to Fred Reich and Wendy Wingfield.

Mary Smiley received the Cecilia Willard Science Medal and Ashley Grigg was named to the Biology Achievement Award.

Chemistry honors went to Michelle Long, Math honors to Darren Hedrick and Towanda Cowan, while Physics recognition went to Henry McKay.

Don Cake got the Wall Street Journal award, James Hicks took the Economics award, the English Award went to Julia Jorgensen, the Poetry Award to Charles Keller, Jr., the Classics Award to Cameron Singhas, and the History Awards to Heather Higginbotham and Holly Franz.

The acting awards went to Chris Webb, Chris Frye, Allison Land, and Heather Cook. The Art Award went to Patricia Ordonez and Charles Elrod.

The Spanish Medal was awarded to Wesley Hawn; the Phi Beta Lambda gold key went to Jacqueline Hartsoe; Brent Smith received the Strunk Accounting Award; and Donna Fletcher was named to the Fitz Scholarship in business.

The Debate Award went to Herman Caulder; Laura Chapman got the Fowler Memorial Award; Dorian Maltba received the Houston Award; and Mary Smiley was honored with the Farthing Award in nursing.

The Political Science Award went to Chris Stevenson; the Psychology award to Angelique Smith and Joseph Farrar. Carmen Holden got the Sociology Award; Janet Chewning was named to the Stahler Music Award; and other music awards went to William Land, Ricky Cline, Amber Christy, and Kim Hill.

Numerous other awards and scholarships were given to outstanding recipients.

The program concluded with the presentation of volleyball courts as the class gift by Senior Class president Chris Stevenson.

FORMER LR PRESIDENT TOP ALUMNUS

The president of Newberry College has been recognized by Lenoir-Rhyne College as the 1993 Distinguished Alumnus.

Dr. Raymond M. Bost, former president of Lenoir-Rhyne, received the award during the annual L-R Alumni Association Awards Luncheon held May 1 on the college campus.

The award is bestowed annually on an alumnus who has achieved distinction in a particular field with consideration to community service and contributions to the general welfare.

Bost, who received his bachelor's degree from L-R in 1949, was ordained in 1952 and has studied at the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, Yale and Harvard Universities.

In 1976, Lenoir-Rhyne granted him an honorary doctorate of divinity degree for his contributions to higher education.

After serving as Lenoir-Rhyne's president for eight years, he served nine years as president of Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia and two as synod historian for the North Carolina Synod, Lutheran Church of America.

Others honored by the Alumni Association were: Nancy Foil Skinner of Hickory, who received the Service Award for outstanding commitment of time, talent and resources to benefit the college.

Glenn C. Hilton Jr., of Hickory, who received the Service to the Community Award for exemplary service to the area.

Bill Bass, Odell Moose and George Murphy, all of Hickory, who received the College At Large award for their contributions of time and support to the athletic program.

GRADUATION 102

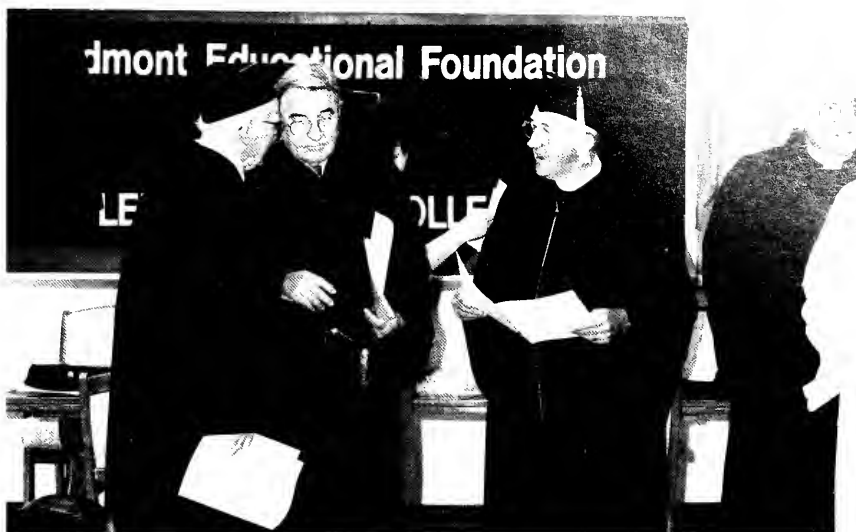

Graduation 102 was held on May 15, 1993. The baccalaureate service was conducted in Monroe Auditorium, with Dr. Michael McDaniel as homilist.

Honorary degrees were presented to William Friday, Harold Flowers, Joseph Lineberger, Harry Viola, and Boyce Whitener, Sr. (several of these men are seen opposite top preparing for the ceremony earlier in the day). A Trustee Award was presented to Mrs. Clara Bowman, who had served on the cafeteria staff for nearly 50 years (opposite bottom right).

A few days before registration and classes begin, Lenoir-Rhyne's freshman class is introduced to Prologue.

Prologue is a series of activities, meetings, social events, and academic challenges that open up the college world to the incoming freshman class.

Prologue, 1993, was chaired by John Austin and Dietra Dula (below left). Numerous other students served as Prologue leaders and worked with the freshman class directly.

Games (below right) highlighted an afternoon where the class of 1997 got to know each better. Hands on contact (opposite top) and flour races (opposite below) were a part of the day.

Homecoming Queen Tiffany Smith (below) is escorted by Mr. Donald McDaniel.

First runner-up Holly Schneider is escorted by Mr. Ross Campbell.

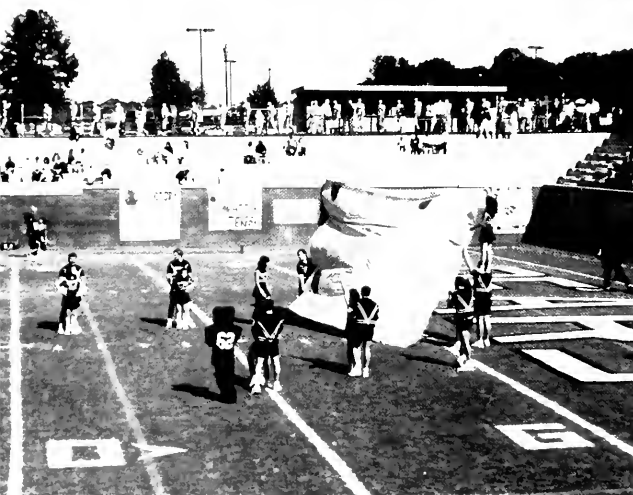

Second runner-up Daria Erdmann is escorted by Mr. Richard Erdmann.

The Homecoming parade featured a float by Theta Xi fraternity (above). Clowns added color to the parade (below right). The football game (below left and opposite top) was between the LR Bears and the Wofford Terriers. It was a come-from-behind victory for the Bears, 27-24. The Homecoming Queen, Tiffany Smith, is crowned (opposite bottom left) and we see a part of the crowd mingling in the Cromer Center (opposite bottom right).

October 22, 1993, was "thank you" day at Lenoir-Rhyne, when the college had an opportunity to thank those who had contributed $27.9 million to the Centennial-Renewal campaign, exceeding the goal by $4 million.

At 12 noon there was a barbecue luncheon on the Quad (below left) with the L-R Jazz Ensemble performing (right). A celebration convocation followed in Monroe Auditorium.

At 3 p.m. there was a sealing of the time capsule at the Cromer Center (opposite below). President John Trainer, Jr. (above right) also spoke, and the Choir presented musical selections (below right).

A reception was held at the home of President and Mrs. Trainer and a dance followed in the Cromer Center featuring the Kampus Kats.

CENTENNIAL-RENEWAL

“IN THEIR OWN WORDS”: REYNOLDS PRICE

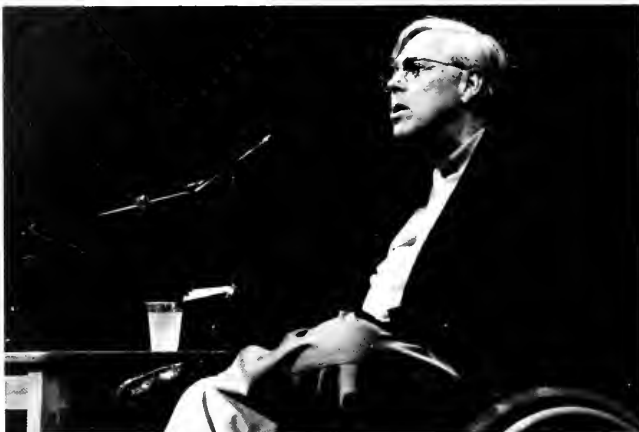

Acclaimed novelist and short story writer Reynolds Price began the year's program, "In Their Own Words," at the Belk Centrum on September 9.

Price, a professor of English at Duke, read from his works to begin the annual Visiting Writers Series at the College.

Price's "A Long and Happy Life," published in 1962, won the William Faulkner Award for a notable first novel. Price's latest work, "The Collected Stories," chronicles all of his short stories from the beginning of his writing career to the present.

Other writers in the series included James Applewhite, Deborah Pope, Susan Ludvingson, Linda Lightsey Rice and Donald Davis.

Dr. Kathy Ivey of the English Department headed the series in the absence of Dr. Rand Brandes.

OPAL MORETZ HONORED

Mrs. Opal Moretz, LR director of church relations, was honored on September 10 at a special birthday gala. Some 200 family and friends, including associates at the college and the Lutheran Church, joined the festivities at the Cromer Center.

Mrs. Moretz has been associated with the college through the years as dean of students and in her present voluntary post since 1975. Her leadership both on and off campus was noted by various speakers including President Trainer (shown with Mrs. Moretz at right) and the Rev. Dr. William Milholland, chairman of the college Board of Trustees and pastor of St. Andrew's church.

THEOLOGY CENTER HOSTS CONFERENCE

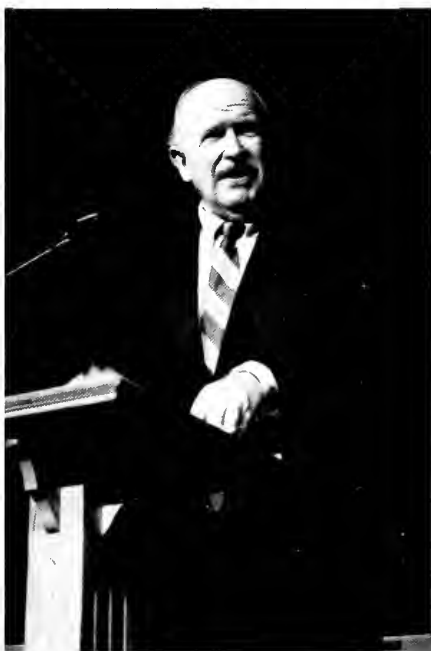

The Lenoir-Rhyne Center for Theology hosted its first major conference November 18-20 (1993) to examine original scholarship concerning Thomas Aquinas and Martin Luther.

The conference brought together distinguished scholars for the presentation and discussion of original scholarship on the two theologians.

Lecturers included Dr. Peter Kreeft of Boston College, Dr. George Lindbeck of Yale Divinity School, Dr. Bruce Marshall of St. Olaf College, and Dr. Harry McSorley of St. Michael's College of Toronto.

Dr. H. Harding Meyer of the Institute for Ecumenical Research in Strasbourg, France, was the keynote speaker and respondent at the conclusion of the conference.

HARLAXTON: AN ADVENTURE

Harlaxton College

Grantham, England

A part of the learning experience at LR takes place in Grantham, England, some 110 miles north of London, at Harlaxton.

Harlaxton is a 100-room manor house in the English Midlands and a self-contained extension of the University of Evansville in southern Indiana.

The Lenoir-Rhyne group in the Fall, 1993, are shown above at the Killarney National Park in Ireland, and below they are visiting in Paris.

AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHT SEMESTERS

With the 1993-94 school year, Lenoir-Rhyne began "Around the World in Eight Semesters."

The global program will place emphasis each semester on one of the eight geographical areas to be studied throughout the curriculum.

Africa was the first area to be studied. During the spring term (1994) the emphasis was placed on the Middle East.

In 1994-95 the college will look at Central, South America and North America. In 1995-96 the college will focus on Oceania and Asia, and in 1996-97 the focus will be on Western and Eastern Europe.

The internationalization of the curriculum was the brainchild of Dr. Marion Love and Dr. Tom Fauquet. A committee of 13 faculty and staff members chose the areas to be studied.

BRANDES' FULBRIGHT: FIRST FOR L-R

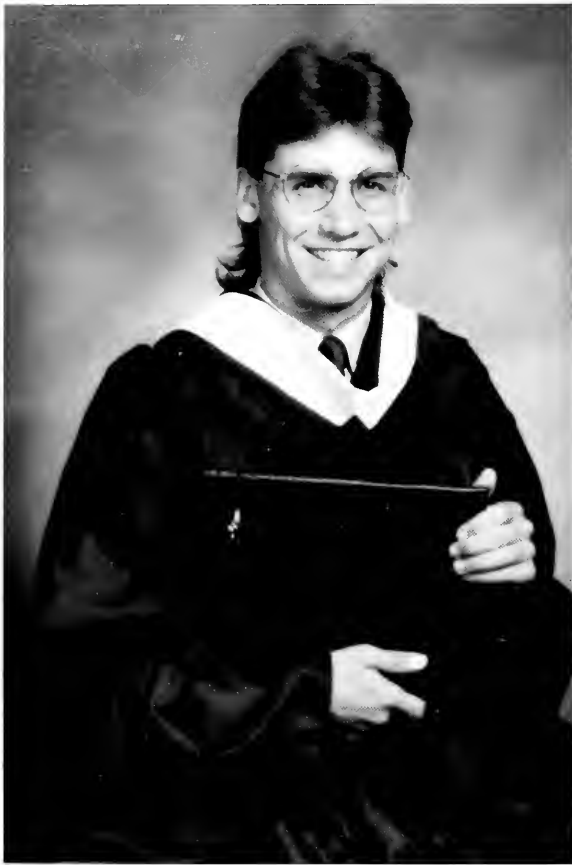

Dr. Rand Brandes, associate professor of English at LR, received a 12-month Fulbright Scholarship in Ireland. The much-coveted prize, a first for Lenoir-Rhyne, was awarded through the Council of International Exchange of Scholars and is designated for research only.

Brandes' task will be to catalog the works of Seamus Heaney and to compile bibliographical information for an upcoming book about the legendary poet.

Brandes noted, "I'm helping preserve a national treasure — Heaney's work. And in doing that, I'm helping preserve Irish culture. It's my gift to the future."

SENIORS CHOOSE BEST ALL-AROUND

Roger Peters

Julie Davis

The Senior Class chose Roger Peters and Julie Davis as "best all-around." Each is among the most active members of the Class and both were chosen to membership in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

Roger Peters was born on February 12, 1972. In 1990, he graduated from Westminster Christian School in Miami, Florida. He is an International Business major.

Roger is a member of the varsity football squad, Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, the Spanish Club, the International Club, Mu Sigma Epsilon, and he serves as a Spanish lab instructor.

Julie Davis was born on March 6, 1972. In 1990, she graduated from Irmo High School in Irmo, South Carolina. She is a Political Science major.

Julie is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority, Model United Nations, Pi Sigma Alpha, Omicron Delta Epsilon, and the Student Government Association.

WHO'S WHO SELECTS 32

The 1994 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES will include the names of 32 Lenoir-Rhyne students.

Selection is based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued service.

THE YEAR: HANDSHAKE OF PEACE

On September 13, 1993, everyone gawked in awe at a sudden turn toward peace. All eyes were on two old enemies in their new roles as peacemakers, men who say peace "salaam" in Arabic or "shalom" in Hebrew.

Yasser Arafat reached for the hand of Yitzhak Rabin as U.S. president Bill Clinton looked on. Suddenly, several thousand people on the White House lawn broke out in applause. It was a true moment of history.

Rabin's Israel and Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization had signed a peace treaty in which the PLO recognized the right of Israel to live in peace; Israel, in turn, recognized the PLO as the representative of Palestinians.

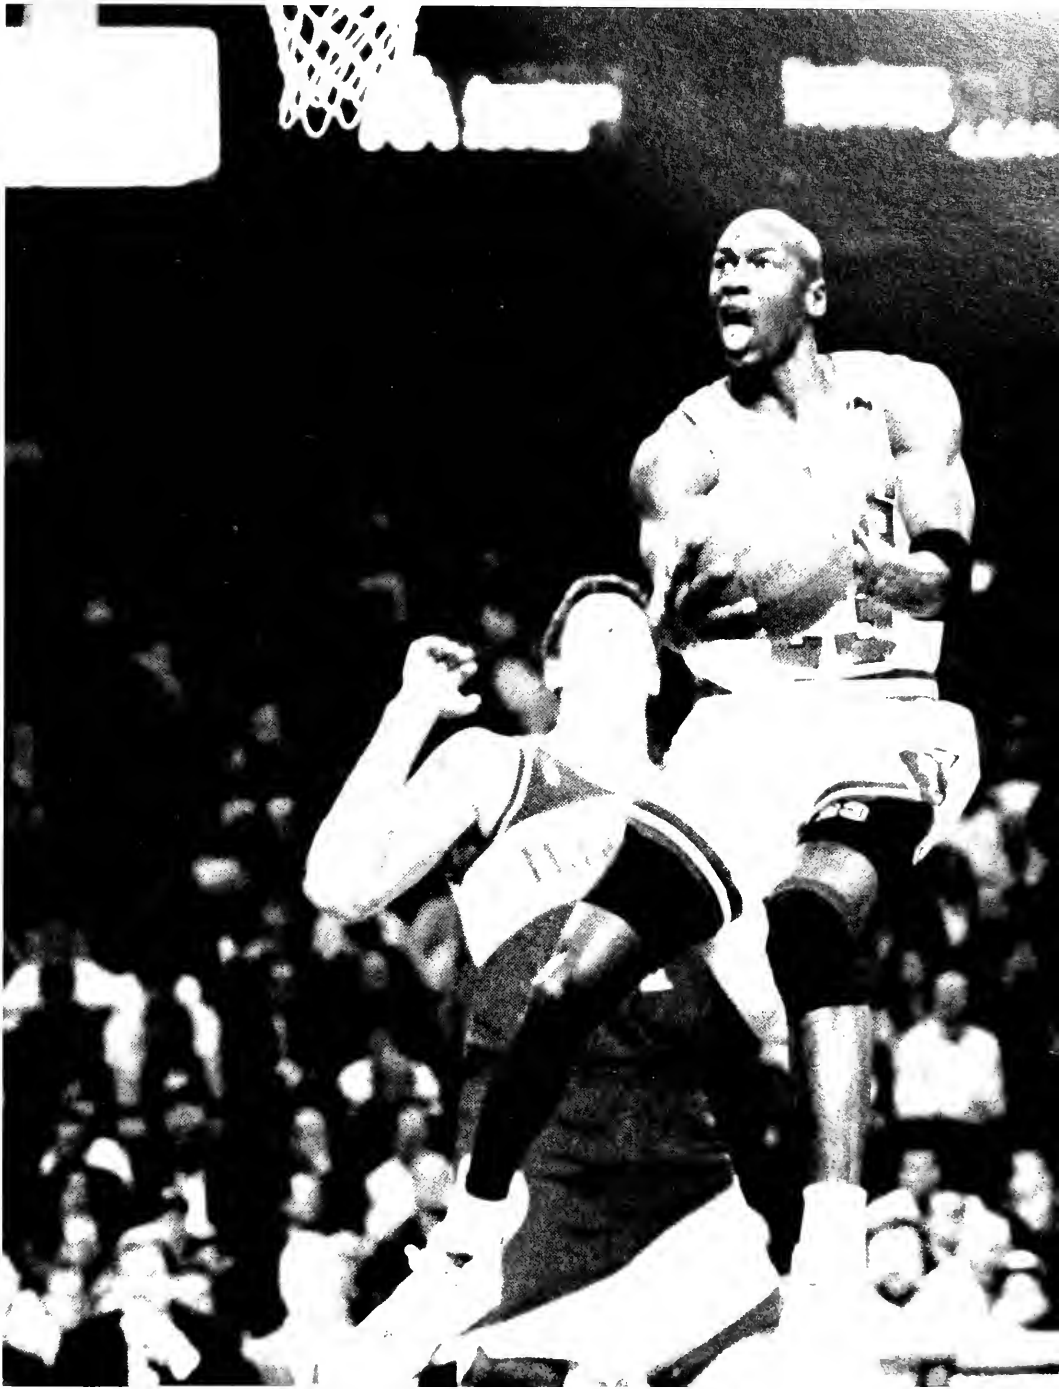

President Clinton, who guided Arafat and Rabin toward their historic handshake (above) called it a "great occasion of history and hope."

One of the biggest stories in the world of sports was the announced retirement of superstar Michael Jordan of the Chicago Bulls (opposite).

Jordan had led his team to three straight National Basketball Association championships, the most recent a victory over the Phoenix Suns in the 1993 finals.

Jordan told the press and his legion of fans: "The thrill is gone. I've done it all. There's nothing left for me to do." He had led NBA scoring for the last seven years.

THE YEAR: MICHAEL "RETIRES"

THE YEAR: TROUBLES IN SOMALIA, BOSNIA

1993 was the year of troubles in Somalia and in Bosnia. The world was drawn to Somalia (above) by starving children and then was almost driven away by fighting adults. A captured American serviceman being dragged through the streets of Mogadishu symbolized the difficulty a 33-country United Nations force had coping with a country that had descended into feudalism.

The civil war in what was once Yugoslavia (below) moved through its second year at terrible human cost — 200,000 people were dead or missing. Much of the attention in the barbaric war centered on Sarajevo, the long-suffering Bosnian capital under siege by the Serbs.

THE YEAR: MIDWEST FLOODS

It was the biggest, wettest story of the summer.

The floods that washed across the Midwest may have been the worst in American history, and they captured the concern of people across the nation.

The stage for disaster was set during the winter, when unusually heavy snow fell. There were no midwinter thaws, so the snow melted rapidly as spring arrived, enough to cause record flooding. And then came the rains. Des Moines, for example, logged more than 32 inches by the end of July, compared with 18.7 in a normal year.

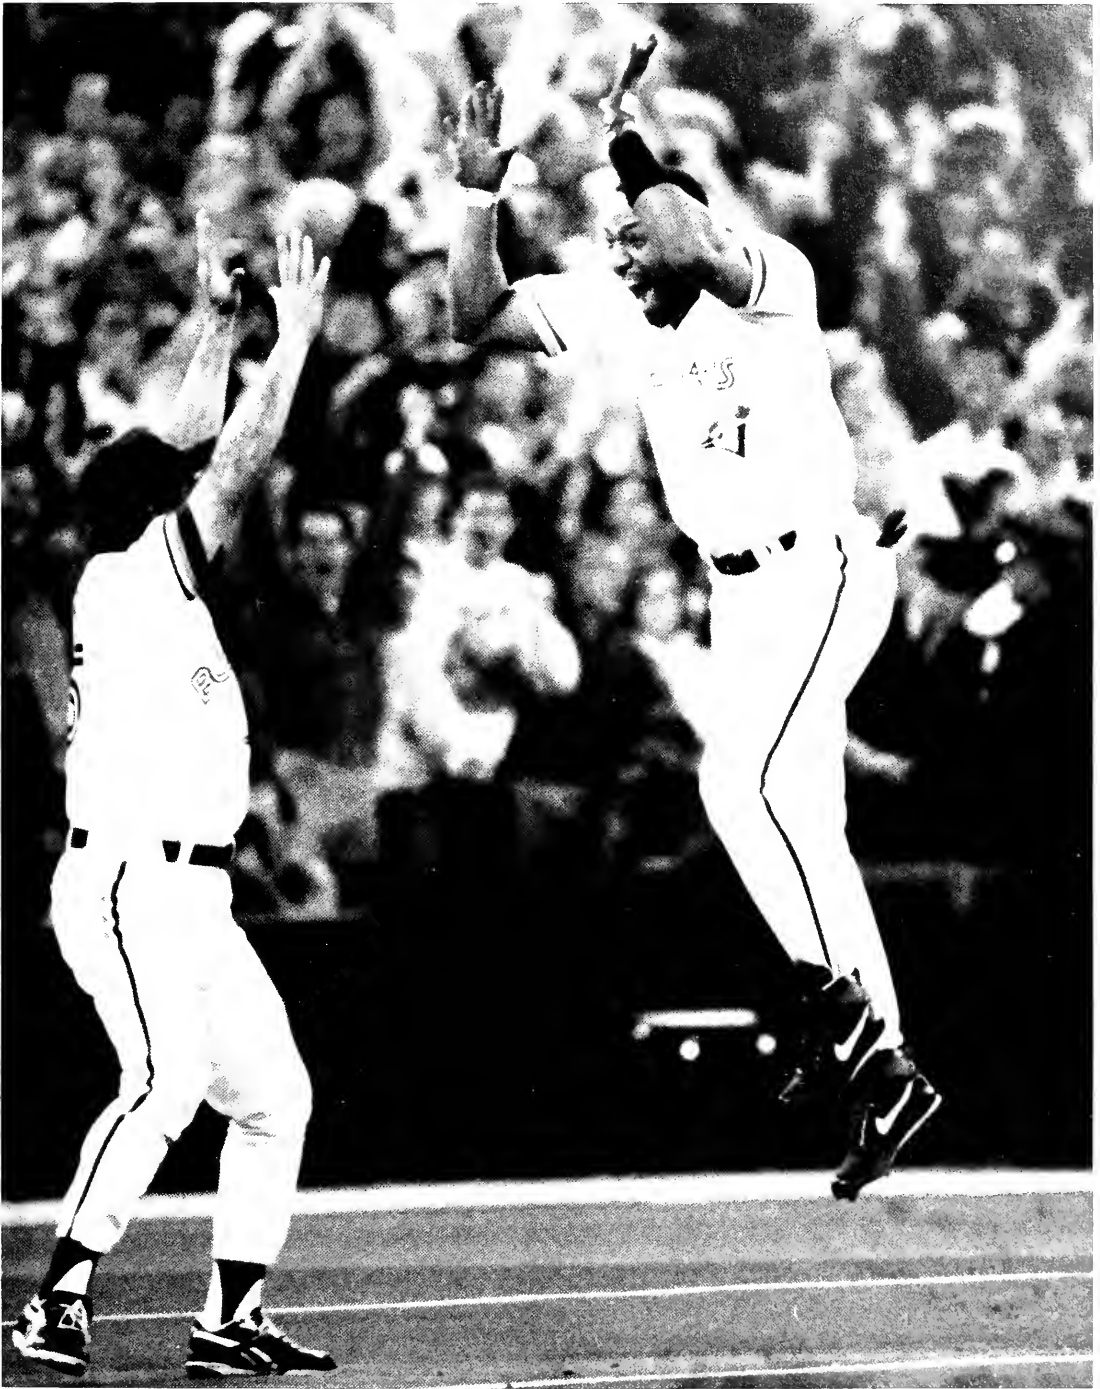

The casualties ranged from the thousands left homeless to investors and consumers in every corner of the U.S. Some farm prices rose and insurers had to pay out millions in compensation.

SUMMER HIT PLAYS TO LARGE AUDIENCE

The Lenoir-Rhyne College summer theatre was in full swing with the presentation of 110 IN THE SHADE, a two-act musical by N. Richard Nash. Production dates were July 29-31 and on August 5-7.

Offered in the Belk Centrum, the musical adaptation of the play, "The Rainmaker," played to full audiences. The show was directed by Dr. Ellis Boatmon, musical direction by John Coffey, choreography was by Dr. Jane Jenkins, and technical direction by Mike Stair.

Set in a midwestern state during a time of drought, the play centered around the Curry family, composed of Henry Patterson, Kathy Shirilla, Ben Honeycutt, and Chris Garrett. A rainmaker, by the name of Starbuck, played by Chuck Yoder (opposite page) is hired to bring rain.

the Education Department and John Froedge (see below center). Also, Eric Stafford, Carol Drum, Robert Keppel, Keith Mull, Rheda Bettini, Amy Young, Cathy Moody, and Brenda Ritchie.

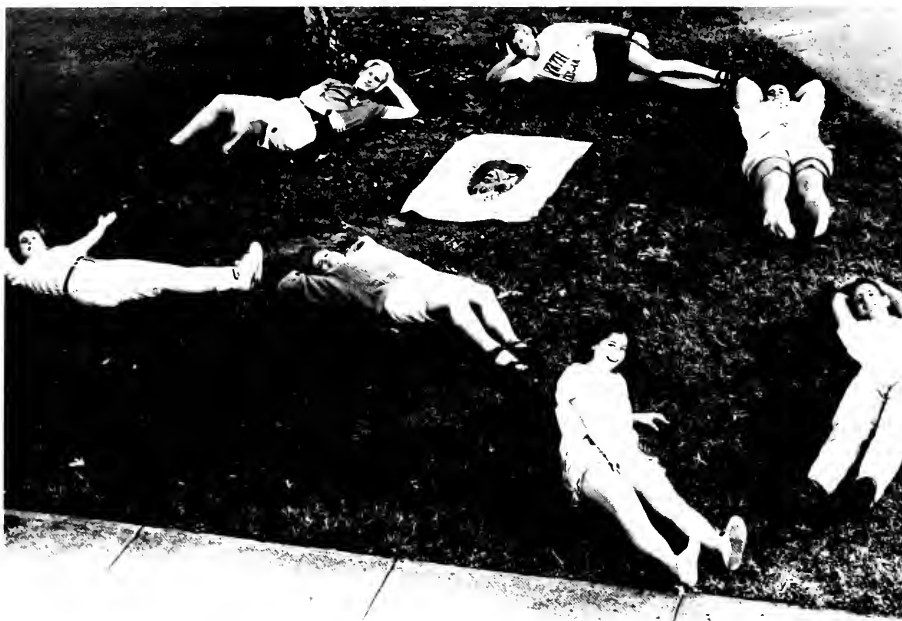

And, Ashley Kyler, Ken Maynor, Linda Old-Payne, Allison Kyler, Terri Deal, Ashley Propst, Melea Lail, Todd Newton, and Ted Newton.

The orchestra included Coffey and Jay Dellinger, Tim Phillips, Larry Hipps, and Rick Cline.

Summer theatre has been in existence at Lenoir-Rhyne since the 1970's. Technical personnel included David McManus, Scott Sherrill, Jason Golt, Nicole Beaver, Jeff Tice, John Austin, and Wade Wolgemuth.

AFRICAN TALES ON QUAD

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Playmakers presented their opening production, "African Tales," on the college quad. A portion of the audience is seen opposite page top.

The play was directed by Ray Mills. Several cast members form Africa in the picture above.

The cast included Jill Burns, Levi Brown, Patric Wickham, Beth Shepherd, Val Pramaggiore, Rosalie Graber, and Jon Lebish.

PLAY COMPLETES RUSSIAN TOUR

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Playmakers returned from their visit to Russia to present in the Belk Centrum the play they had earlier offered to Russian audiences, "Dark of the Moon."

The play, opening on November 4, is the story of Barbara Allen and the witch boy who becomes human to marry her. Gillian Carney and Jeff Holtsclaw played the leads.

Dr. Marion Love directed the play with Jan Cauthen having designed the set. The cast also included Russian native Vadim Kurilov, who traveled from his homeland to be a part of the Lenoir-Rhyne ensemble.

The cast included Emily Nettin, Dawn Graziani, Nicole Beaver, Brian Sykes, Jon Lebish, Randy Miller, Michael Fox, Courtney Dougherty, and Joseph Conklin.

Also, Jonathan Ernst, Vince Lurie, Mimi Frankman, Katrina Bernsdorff, Tammy Stinson, Christi McDougal, and Paula King.

Kent Buess served as technical director, Janet Melody handled costumes, Chris Rice was lighting designer, and Allison Land was stage manager.

Shannon Myers (above), a junior from Salisbury, North Carolina, is perhaps the college's most versatile male two-sport athlete.

In football he is a wide receiver who has led in touch-down receptions and is in the top ten of punt return average.

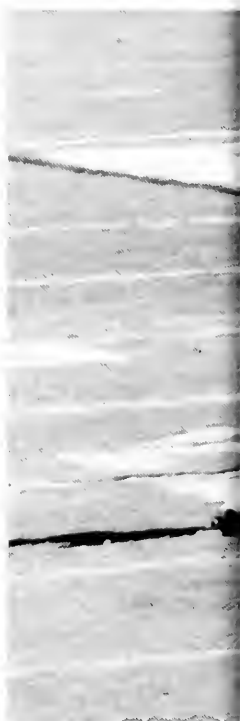

In baseball he is a center fielder, who as a freshman hit .300 and had 16 stolen bases.

Myers stated, "During football season, I miss baseball, and during baseball I miss football . . . I always feel I should be contributing for both teams."

GREEK AWARDS, '93

The 27th annual Greek Awards ceremony was held on May 3, 1993, in the Belk Centrum, honoring the achievement and excellence of members of Lenoir-Rhyne's eight Greek-letter groups.

Dr. Ellis Boatmon, professor of history, and founder of the Greek Awards in 1966, was master of ceremonies.

After greetings were brought by Edith Wells and Brent Smith and the invocation offered by Dr. Michael McDaniel, the first awards were given out to outstanding freshmen Dan Hench and Jacque Christ.

Outstanding pledge awards went to Wade Wolgemuth and Heather Shields, the sophomore awards were awarded Kevin Downing and Sally Waltz, and the junior honors to John Austin and Julie Davis.

Senior awards went to Chris Stevenson and Minette Bushong (opposite bottom right) and the final two awards — Fraternity Man of the Year and Panhellenic Woman of the Year — were received by Wesley Hawn (Tau Kappa Epsilon) and Julie Jorgensen (Sigma Kappa). The two are shown at right with President John Trainer, Jr.

Various athletic awards were given, including the Carelli Memorial Award, which went to Tony Mallard of the varsity basketball team.

The McDaniel Citizenship Award, named for Michael McDaniel and for his father, John McDaniel, was conferred upon Jay Thompson, while Kira Zwygart received the Laura Clayton Greek Award in Scholarship.

The Ellis Boatmon Greek Award in Community Service went to Devin Goodwin (bottom right), the Excelsior Award for contributions to the arts was received by Theodosia Markett (shown bottom center with John Coffey, pianist for the Greek Awards), and Tom Boyles was recipient of the David Moose Leadership Award.

The Founders Award went to Jay Thompson, the Spirit Within Award to Lee Pearce, and the Jane Jenkins Presidential Cup was received by Julia Jorgensen, president of Sigma Kappa sorority.

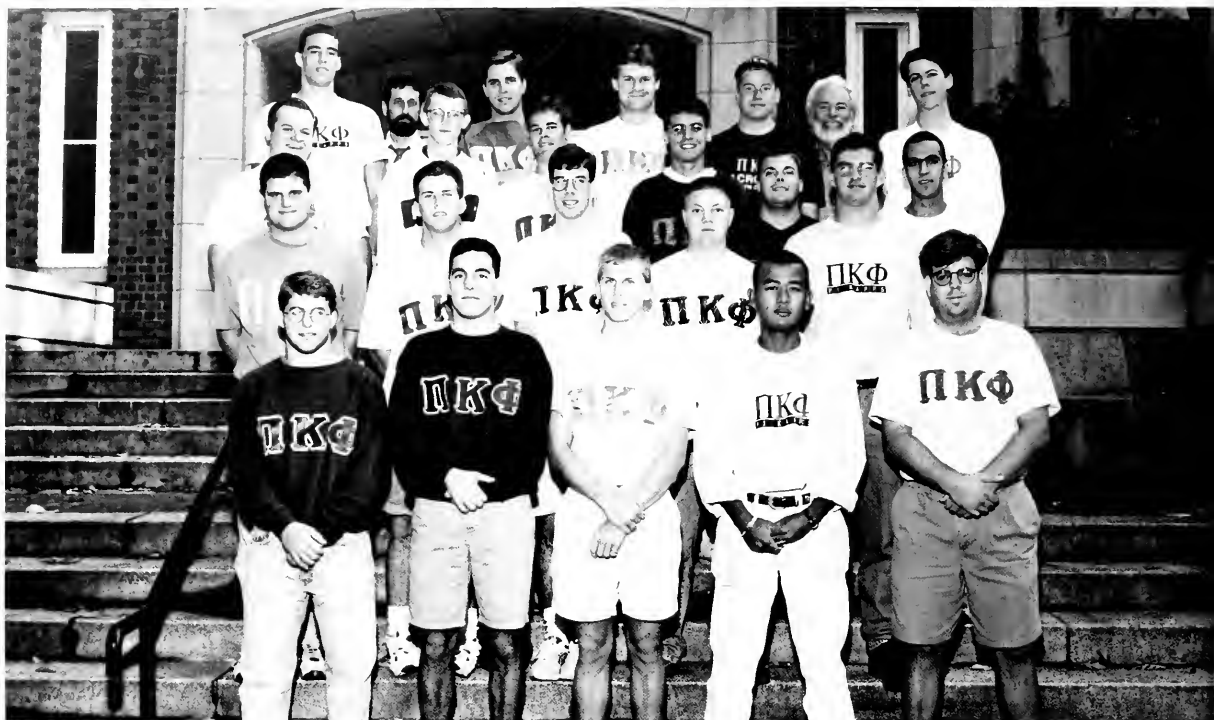

A host of recipients received certificates for special honors and awards for the good of the order.

Dr. Michael Riley offered the closing prayer.

MEET A BEAR

The HACAWA proudly presents twenty Bears. Members of the Student Body with brief sketches describing why they came to Lenoir-Rhyne and what the college means to them.

This feature also presents a cross-section of the country, focusing on the areas from which LR draws students. These twenty Bears afford a good sampling of "we the people" at Lenoir-Rhyne College.

DEDICATION

Lenoir-Rhyne is a community. We the people. A college community is often thought of as teachers and students. Those are certainly two of its most valued constituencies.

But, the community also includes others beyond faculty and student body. We the people is also all those who enable Lenoir-Rhyne to function and to serve day-by-day.

The recipient of the dedication of the 1994 HACAWA is neither faculty nor student, but nonetheless a valued and contributing member of our community.

Coming to Lenoir-Rhyne in 1976, she has become a part of the lives of many students as well as becoming a part of the daily operation of the college community.

In an official capacity, she is connected in some way with just about everyone at Lenoir-Rhyne. Daily she crosses paths with many students as well as many of the other folks who work here.

In her relationships with students she is always cheerful and helpful; always interested, smiling, caring, concerned. Hers is more than a 9 to 5 job. In her dealings with students, each student is important to her and she makes an extra-special effort to assist them.

Her care and concern are also there for faculty and for others with whom she deals each day. If the campus has a hub it is most likely her desk, for virtually everyone at the college relates to her during each week.

And while there are others in our community who provide many of the same concerns as our recipient, we felt that, in a very special way, she touches the lives of the students. She, in a myriad of ways, makes the life of the student more pleasant, more rewarding, and more meaningful. She is an integral part of we the people.

With deep appreciation and abiding respect for who she is and what she means to this community, we proudly dedicate the 1994 HACAWA to

MRS. JEAN BEAVER

Officially, Mrs. Beaver is the secretary to Dr. Robert Spuller, vice president of academic affairs. She is the wife of the Reverend Roger Beaver and the mother of Chris Beaver, a freshman at Lenoir-Rhyne.

And she is likewise a friend to all who study and labor here.

... A FEW LAST WORDS

A yearbook is pictorial and we are most grateful to those who supplied the pictures that make up the HACAWA. David Thomas, a freshman from Salisbury, N.C., was director of photography. Many of David's pictures are shown throughout the book. James Labrenz of Insight Photographic of Hickory supplies the majority of our pictures. A professional photographer who has worked with the HACAWA for many years, we are grateful to James for the quality of his work and the delight of his friendship. Andrea Curtis contributed pictures as did Dr. Russell Benton, Barbara Olson Burns (HICKORY NEWS), Jeff Willhelm (Catawba Valley NEIGHBORS), Jeff Oberg (LENOIR-RHYNEAN), Jonathan Ernst, Dr. Jane Jenkins, and Phil Robinson.

Appreciation for their assistance goes to Tom Neff, college Sports Information Director, and Coaches Tom Melville, John Hamilton, and David Patterson. Our staff was small but loyal. Thanks to Angie Earnhardt, Wade Wolgemuth, and Kyle Wolf. Mrs. Dottie Crafton was HACAWA typist. Many thanks for her help. Miss Iris Moore (the Business Office) was as always a most helpful person. The paperwork connected with the HACAWA has doubled. We appreciate her helping make that less a burden.

We very much appreciate the aid given by the Public Relations Department. We raided their files for pictures and for information. Thanks a lot. Many thanks to Bill Hall and to Josten's of Winston-Salem. It is a long year putting a yearbook together and Bill eases the headaches involved.

And in saying farewell to Dr. John Trainer, we also say how grateful we are that over the years he has been most interested in the yearbook and most helpful toward its publication. We wish he and his family godspeed.

"We the People" . . . this is the theme I chose for what is to become a pictorial guide of our year. The things we did and saw, and more importantly, the people we met and knew are culminated within these pages, and I wish to thank all of you for allowing me the opportunity to again create a yearbook for you — something which will become increasingly important to us as our years progress.

As I write this, my graduation day is a mere 82 days away, so not only should these last words sum up this year and this book, but also my four years at our beloved Fair Star. I have done and seen many things during my stay here, but more importantly, I've met a lot of people. Hundreds of people have passed through my life in one way or another during the past years, and I dare say that I have been influenced some way by just about everyone I've met. On May 1, 1994, as I receive my diploma, I will be a totally different person than I was in August 1990, but I've changed for the better — largely because of the people I knew here. I've made a lot of friends — some I will stay in touch with the rest of my life, and some I will never see again, but nonetheless I am better off for knowing each and everyone of them.

My congratulations to the senior class — may you prosper in what you do. And to those we leave behind — enjoy your time here, it will end all too soon. To my friends — thank you for everything you've given me; you know who you are and how special each and every one of you is to me. And finally to my Eppy Rho Raiders, especially the surviving Rho's — I've enjoyed every minute of it.

John
